

Orange Shirt Day Scavenger Hunt

Faculty of Fine Arts

September 30th is the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation—a day set aside to commemorate the history and the ongoing tragic legacy of the Indian Residential Schools in Canada.

“The truth is that these institutions were set up to acculturate, assimilate and near annihilate the Indigenous Peoples—to move towards true reconciliation, more about the truth needs to be known,” says Karla Point, the Indigenous Resurgence Coordinator for the Faculty of Fine Arts. “This scavenger hunt is intended to create more awareness of the presence of Indigenous people on campus and to tweak your interest so you’ll want to learn more.”

All completed contest forms submitted to the entry box in the Fine Arts lobby by Friday, October 8, will be entered into a draw for a traditional cedar hat (above) handmade by Karla Point. Contest open to all students, faculty and staff in the Faculty of Fine Arts.
