Performances that sing cannot be had for a song.

It takes more than high hopes and good wishes to produce a quality play, opera, symphony, ballet or exhibition. It takes talented performers, writers or artists. It takes dedicated people working behind the scenes. And these days, it also takes the support of outside organizations.

At BC TEL, we know that there's a lot more to life than business. We recognize the important contributions made by the arts. That's why we're pleased to support the arts community.

We've been behind the arts in the past. We're behind them now. And we look forward to being able to help in the future.

We're here because you are.

The Story Of A Love That Transcends Time And Place

There will be one 15 minute intermission

Please note: The atmospheric lighting effect used during the show is a mixture of water and glycerine passing through a humidifier.

Audience advice: For the enjoyment of fellow audience members and actor's concentration, we ask that you kindly refrain from taking photographs during the performance. We would also ask that patrons deprogram their automatic watch signals and turn off anything that rings or beeps.

Director - Margo Regan

Margo Regan has performed as an actress in Montreal, Toronto, New York, San Francisco and Edmonton. In Victoria she appeared in Voices for the Focus on Women Arts Festival at Eaton's Centre, in This is a Play for UVic/SATCo and in Lizzie Borden Took an Axe...Or did She? for City Theatre at Kaleidoscope Theatre. Margo is currently completing her sixth year teaching Acting and Voice/Speech in the Theatre Department at UVic. In 1994 Margo directed Arthur Miller's A View from the Bridge and in 1995, "An Evening with George Bernard Shaw" which included Overruled and Village Wooing for the Phoenix Theatres.

Ms. Regan did her acting training in New York at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts, of which she is a graduate, and subsequently in San Francisco at the American Conservatory Theatre. She has an MA in Drama from the University of Alberta.

In place of Director's Notes, Ms. Regan offers her audience the following questions;

KING PANDION. Do you know this play, Tereus?

TEREUS. No.

KING PANDION. I find plays help me think. You catch a phrase, recognize a character. Perhaps this play will help us come to a decision.

The Love of The Nightingale by Timberlake Wertenbaker

Now, by myself, I am nothing; yea, full oft
I have regarded woman's fortunes thus,
That we are nothing; who in our father's house
Live, I suppose, the happiest, while young,
Of all mankind; for ever pleasantly
Does Folly nurture all. Then, when we come
To full discretion and maturity,
We are thrust out and marketed abroad,
Far from our parents and ancestral gods,
Some to strange husbands, some to barbarous,
One to a rude, one to a wrangling home;
And these, after the yoking of a night,
We are bound to like, and deem it well with us.

Much

I envy thee thy life: and most of all,
that thou hast never had experience
Of a strange land.

A fragment from Sophocles's lost play, Tereus
Translated by Sir George Young

Margo Regan
Stage Director

Phoenix Phact - The Love of the Nightingale was first performed by the Royal Shakespeare Company at The Other Place, Stratford-upon-Avon, on October 28th, 1988.

Phoenix Phact - Graduates Abigail Kitt and Paul Terry were featured in fellow graduate Janet Munsil's Emphysema directed by Tim Crofton (4th year) as part of the Belfry's Studio series.

GIFT CERTIFICATES

Think ahead...

Phoenix Theatre Gift Certificates make great little gifts.

Just the gift for the couple who has everything else.

Gift Certificates for Phoenix Productions are available through the Box Office.

Phoenix Phact - The hoopoe is thought to be a royal bird, because of its crest of feathers. Supposedly its nests are notorious for their stench. They appear in the Koran telling solomon prophetic secrets.

About the Playwright - Timberlake Wertenbaker

Award-winning playwright, Timberlake Wertenbaker was resident writer at the Royal Court in 1984 - 1985. Her plays include The Third, Case to Answer, New Anatomies, Abel's Sister, and The Grace of Mary Traverse which won the Plays and Players Most Promising Playwright Award for 1985. The play Our Country's Good won the Laurence Olivier Play of the Year Award in 1988, the same year Ms. Wertenbaker was awarded the Most Promising Young Playwright by the Evening Standard. She then wrote The Love of the Nightingale which won the 1989 Eileen Anderson Central TV Drama Award and Three Birds Alighting on a Field which won the Susan Smith Blackburn Award in 1992. Wertenbaker wrote the screenplay for The Children based on the Edith Wharton novel and a BBC2 film entitled Do Not Disturb.

A Phoenix Phact: Colin Plant (4th year) has been appointed Artistic Director of Island Repertory Company and will be Pam Johnson's assistant in the direction of the Belfry's production of The Sum of Us. He will assist Roger Carr directing Into the Woods for Victoria Operatic Society.

Costume Designer for 'Nightingale

Mary Kerr

Mary Kerr has been designing for theatre, dance and opera for more than 25 years. As one of this country's best known theatrical designers, she has won numerous awards: Two Sterlings, seven Doras, a Chalmers, a Gemenaux and has two Gemini nominations. Mary represented Canada at the prestigious Prague Quadrennial. The Metropolitan Toronto Reference Library has over 5,000 items in its Kerr Collection.

Furthermore, Mary has extensive television (including two seasons designing for the Tommy Hunter Show), film and video credits. She has designed sets and costumes for the Paris Opera Ballet, The Stratford and Shaw Festivals, Danny Grossman Dance Theatre and The Canadian Opera Company. For the Royal Winnipeg Ballet, she designed the set and costumes for Anne of Green Gables and a circus ballet The Big Top.

In addition, Mary has designed for such notable companies as Tarragon, Canadian Stage, The Belfry, Kaleidoscope, The Grand Theatre, Toronto Free Theatre, Toronto's Young Peoples Theatre, The New Zealand Opera, and The National, The Ottawa and Florida Ballet.

Special events include The Goose and Beaver Show for the Canada Pavilion for Expo 86 and she was production designer for the Opening and Closing Ceremonies of the 1994 Commonwealth Games.

Recent work includes six stage/television shows by Du Maurier celebrating Canadian talent.

She is a member of the Directors Guild of Canada, The Royal Canadian Academy and the Associated Designers of Canada.

Mary received her BFA (Hon.) from the University of Manitoba and has ten years experience teaching at the post-secondary level at York, Waterloo and Ryerson.

Mary is currently teaching Costume History & Costume Design for UVic's Department of Theatre and is the designer of costumes for the Love Of The Nightingale.

UNIVERSITY OF VICTORIA

BECKETT FESTIVAL

May 3, 4 & 5 1996

The Department of Theatre will host a Beckett Festival featuring twenty Beckett productions (performed by groups from Canada, the U.S., France and Switzerland), twenty-seven papers (presented by international scholars), a gala dinner, Beckett videos and films, and a theatre history course offered through Summer Studies. The Department of Theatre will produce for the Festival, Krapp's Last Tape featuring John Krich and Act Without Words II.

To receive more information, please contact Marnie Crowe at 721-7992.

Phoenix Phact - Sarah Topham (2nd year) is the recipient of the Victoria Operatic Society Scholarship.

The Fourth Year Experience

The acting specialization at the University of Victoria begins in the third year of a four year BFA program. Normally an average of twelve students are accepted each year into the acting program, the highlight of which is the "fourth year project." This year's project is The Love of the Nightingale in which the fourth year students appear in lead roles.

This production is only one of the areas in which the acting class focuses. We have worked for the past two years on movement - including tumbling, sword fighting and mask work, voice and speech - including articulation, pronunciation and radio plays - all the while honing our acting skills. The Love of the Nightingale is the culmination of four years of dedication and hard work on our part and on the part of our instructors.

Kathleen Goodin
(Niobe)

Phoenix Phact - Todd Skinner (graduate) has been appointed General Manager of the Island Repertory Company.
