Margaret Russell Art History & Visual Studies Graduate Student Internship in Curatorial Studies January-April 2017

University of Victoria Legacy Art Galleries

The Margaret Russell graduate intern receives training in curatorial and collections management practices at UVic’s Legacy Art Galleries under the supervision of its professional staff. The student participates in one curatorial project under the supervision of the curator and/or director and also participates in assigned collections management activities and exhibition installations when possible. Preference will be given to a graduate student interested in curating and museum or gallery work as a career.

The internship hours are a total of 134 hours (approx. 8 hours per week for 14 weeks), and runs from mid-January to mid-April 2017. The wage is $24.69 per hour plus 4% holiday pay (to a total of $3,500).

To apply: submit your CV and a statement of interest (500 words outlining your interest in objects in museums or galleries in Canadian collections, and indicate which one of the projects below interests you and why), to the Chair of Art History & Visual Studies, Dr. Erin J. Campbell by emailing arthistorychair@uvic.ca. Please also cc Graduate Advisor Dr. Astri Wright, at astri@uvic.ca.

The successful applicant will be notified in the second week of January 2017.
