Thomas Bauer, born in Bonn, Germany, began to play the flute at the age of 12. Thomas is currently finishing his Bachelor of Music in Flute Performance at the University of Victoria. At UVic, he studied flute with Suzanne Snizek for four years and is now a student of Mary Byrne. Thomas has also studied privately with Sheila French, and has performed in master classes for Jeanne Baxtresser, Renée Siebert, Susan Hoepfner, Christie Reside, Richard Volet and Tadeu Coelho. He has also participated in the Domaine Forget International Music and Dance Academy, Julius Baker Masterclass, Victoria Flute Workshop and played in the Canadian Wind Orchestra from 2010-2011. Thomas has been a recipient of numerous scholarships during his time at UVic including the Phillip T. Young Memorial Scholarship in Music, the Naden Band of Maritime Forces Pacific Scholarship in Music Performance and the UVic Performance Scholarship in Music. Thomas is currently the principal flutist of the Greater Victoria Youth Orchestra.
