BIOGRAPHY

Originally from Brandon, Manitoba, Laurie Matiation is currently Artistic Director of the Academy and Advanced Program at Mount Royal University Conservatory — a unique program specifically designed for students who wish to work on their performance skills and self-confidence.

Laurie is also a passionate teacher, and believes that all can achieve their goals and dreams with proper guidance, inspiration and support. She conducts workshops and clinics, and is one of the founding members of HornFest, an annual horn workshop which is celebrating it's 10th anniversary in 2020. She is teacher of horn at Mount Royal University Conservatory and the University of Calgary.

Laurie began her professional career in 1978 as second horn of the Atlantic Symphony Orchestra, and joined the Calgary Philharmonic Orchestra in 1983. In June of 2019, Laurie retired from the CPO after 41 years of service in the orchestra business. She is excited about her next musical journey and adventure, and will continue to support and be an advocate for the arts community and music education in the schools.

In her down time, Laurie enjoys gardening, cooking, camping and spending quality time with family.
