ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Special thanks to Megan Bibby who stepped in to rehearse and perform the Borodin Quartet in the first week of QFW. She is a big part of QFW 2024 even though you won't hear her tonight.

We are extremely grateful to the members of the community who generously donated prizes for our extremely fun and successful Live Music Bingo Night on July 3. This includes: the Breakwater String Quartet, Synergy Health Centre (Quadra at MacKenzie), Twyla's Flower Farm, Crag X Indoor Climbing Centre, Fig Mediterranean Deli, Thrifty Foods, and The Little Thai Place.

Quartet Fest West acknowledges the generous support of the administration, staff and faculty of the UVic School of Music without whom this festival would not take place. Huge shout out to Vanessa Bloomfield of UVic's Residence Services who has been remarkably calm and accommodating throughout the many changing housing needs of the festival this year. Thank you also to Héctor Vásquez and Genaro Martinez Tellez (QFW graphics), Dawn McLean and St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Feldenkrais Practitioner Diane Lade, QFW Luthier-in-residence Ross Hill, and David Broome for his technical assistance.

Thanks to our wonderful volunteers and hosts: Gail Gauthier, Sue Priestly, Joan McNeely, and Heather Buchan, and to James Hesser for his partnership in advertising our events. And special thanks to the office of Elizabeth May for assisting in international student visas.

Donations are gratefully accepted and go toward scholarships for this year's and future QFW students. Thank you for your continued support!
