

Biographies

Sophia Adames (she/her) is a second year flautist currently pursuing a Bachelor's of Music at the University of Victoria, where she is currently studying with Marsha Elliott-Edwards. Growing up in Calgary (Treaty 7 territory), Sophia's diverse musical background spans everything from orchestra to marching band. Sophia has had the privilege of working with many talented musicians, including Mary Sullivan, Sarah MacDonald, Brenda Fedoruk and Dr. Suzanne Snizek. Outside of music, Sophia can be found enjoying a good book, starting a new crochet project, or exploring nature.

Spencer Leong Cowie (he/him) is a multi-instrumentalist in his second year at the UVic School of Music, where he is pursuing a bachelor's degree in music education. Spencer is currently studying flute and bassoon with Brenda Fedoruk and Katrina Russell respectively. In addition to being an instrumentalist, he is also a skilled arranger and composer.

You can find Spencer online via his official instagram account, @spencerleongcowieofficial, or subscribe to his YouTube channel Scherzando Music.

Acknowledgements

Thank you to the UVic School of Music for letting us perform in the beautiful Philip T. Young Recital Hall. Thank you to our accompanists, Sam Freer and Yousef Shadian, for helping us sound our best, as well as our friends Cleary Manning and Garron Stuart for joining us on stage today. We are really pleased with how our photoshoot turned out, thanks to the amazing DJ McGrath. Finally, thank YOU, our friends, family, and teachers for being here and helping make this recital possible!
