University of Victoria Voice Department presents

Vocal Showcase

Featuring voice students from the classes of Benjamin Butterfield, Anne Grimm & Susan Young

Program

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750):

Ei, wie schmeckt der Kaffee süsse from “Coffee” Cantata
Heather Harker

Flösst mein Heiland from Weinachts-Oratorium
Christina Dennehy, with Ariel Boughen

Laudamus te from B minor Mass
Danielle Sosnowski

Ich will dir mein Herze schenken from St. John Passion
Marlee Wetter

Blute nur from St. Matthew Passion
Amy Wood

Schliesse mein Herze from Christmas Oratorio
Erin Ronningen

Wenn sorgen auf mich dringen from Cantata 3
Julie Nadalini & Lindsey Suddaby

Herr dein Mitleid from Weinachts-Oratorium
Richard Bailey & Dominique Ryser

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756-1791):

Als Luise die Briefe ihres ungetreuen Liebhabers verbrannte
Aisling Ryan Aylward

Ah, guarda sorella from Cosi fan tutti
The two sisters, Fiordiligi and Dorabella discuss the merits of love.
Renee Bibeau & Ariel Boughen

Smanie implacabili from Cosi fan tutte
Dorabella has a fit about her lover having left to join the army.
Tasha Farivar

Come scoglio from Cosi fan tutte
Fiordaligi states how she is, “like a rock” in matters of the heart.
Leah Alfred

Porgi amor from Le Nozze di Figaro
The Countess, in a private moment, sings of the pain of fading love.
Laura Miller

Fuggi crudele, fuggi from Don Giovanni
Don Ottavio vows to avenge the death of Donna Anna’s father.
Stephanie Landucci & Josh Lovell

La ci darem la mano from Don Giovanni
Don Giovanni tries to seduce the young “bride to be,” Zerlina.
Andrew Buckley & Meagan Greentree

Papageno/ Papagena Duet from Die Zauberflöte
Papageno finally gets the girl he has been waiting for!
Nick Allen & Olivia Selig

Piano: Susan Young, Charlotte Hale, Eva Hodge, Endy Zhou, Eliza Yen, Steph Taralson

Friday, February 24, 2012 at 8:00 p.m.
Phillip T. Young Recital Hall
MacLaurin Building, University of Victoria
Admission by Donation
www.finearts.uvic.ca/music/events