Love's Philosophy

by Percy Bysshe Shelley

The fountains mingle with the river,
And the rivers with the ocean;
The winds of heaven mix forever,
With a sweet emotion;
Nothing in the world is single;
All things by a law divine
In one another's being mingle;
Why not I with thine?

See! the mountains kiss high heaven,
And the waves clasp one another;
No sister flower would be forgiven,
If it disdained it's brother;
And the sunlight clasps the earth,
And the moonbeams kiss the sea;
What are all these kissings worth,
If thou kiss not me?

April In Paris (1952) starring Doris Day and Ray Bolger. Miss Ethel “Dynamite” Jackson is a Broadway chorus girl who mistakenly receives an invitation from the State Department to represent the American theatre at an arts exposition in Paris, France. The invitation was meant for Miss Ethel Barrymore. Winthrop Putnam, the bureaucrat who mixed things up, tries unsuccessfully to correct his blunder. However, it’s too late - Dynamite Jackson is already on her way to Paris. Dynamite and Winthrop meet on the way to Paris, fall in love and marry... at least they think they’re married! To further complicate matters, Winthrop is engaged to Marcia Sherman, daughter of his boss Secretary Sherman. Spoiler alert! - Winthrop and Dynamite ultimately end up together.
