EMERGING ARTISTS ALUMNI SERIES

Calling all UVic School of Music alumni!
(solo artists, bands, chamber groups, composers)

We are now accepting proposals from School of Music alumni for our Emerging Artists Alumni Series. We know how hard it can be to finance a concert and are opening the Phillip T. Young Recital Hall doors for 1–2 events each semester dedicated to showcasing the talents of alumni in the early stages of their careers.

Successful applicants will be provided with:
• Access to the Phillip T. Young Recital Hall for a concert and dress rehearsal.
• Event staff (ushers, stage manager, recording technician) & concert program
• Recording of the concert & live online audio broadcast
• Event promotion in the School of Music brochure & on our website.

Admission to concerts will be by donation and proceeds will be divided 50/50 between performer(s) and the School of Music.

Apply to concert@uvic.ca with the following:
• Proposed program and list of performers (minimum 60 minute program)
• Bio of each alumni performer (250 words or less each)
• High resolution photo(s)
• Links to website, audio, video, social media pages (if available)

Deadline for applications
(for the 2016-17 concert season):
May 1, 2016
