The University of Victoria’s Phoenix Theatre presents

Sign Language Interpretation

featuring a dynamic team of interpreters including Nigel Howard, international Deaf interpreter, presenter and performer.

SIGN LANGUAGE PERFORMANCE: SATURDAY, MARCH 26, 2011 @ 2PM

Written by acclaimed playwright Daniel MacIvor and directed by the renowned David Ferry, this modern tragicomedy plays host to a cross-section of Canadian experiences. Over the course of one evening, immigrants and orphans, Christians and addicts, entrepreneurs and activists alike will converge in the pulsing world of the nightclub. Between the beats of the music, boundaries will fall, tensions will rise, and lives will change forever. (Advisory: Mature subject matter, partial nudity and strong language.)

Thank you to the Island Deaf and Hard of Hearing Centre for their support.

Your support is vital to us. We keep our prices deliberately low to remain accessible to the community. However, ticket revenues cover only two thirds of our production costs. We appreciate donations of any size to support our work at the Phoenix.

Please indicate your donation as Anonymous in the programme.

The Phoenix productions serve the academic requirements of the Bachelor of Fine Arts and Master of Fine Arts Degrees in the Department of Theatre. Play selections are subject to change.
