featuring Victoria-based actress, drama teacher, director and Deaf interpreter Denise Read with Hearing interpreter Jen Ferris.

A drama teacher, actress, author and director, Denise brings her theatre skills to interpret this hilarious comedy. First known as an author, composer and performer, this multi-talented artist also writes songs in the Quebec Sign Language (LSQ) and American Sign Language (ASL).

SIGN LANGUAGE PERFORMANCE:
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20, 2012 @ 2PM

You’ll “die” laughing at this classic whodunit that spoofs The Hardy Boys with The Shining, placing our hilarious heroes at a seedy roadside motel with a psycho killer — who is (surprise, surprise!) the motel manager! No spoiler here. The real mystery is why the mattresses are so dirty! Or what will this dynamic duo learn about themselves when they check in? If they ever check out! This physical comedy team is hot off a trail of sold-out shows and awards from Fringes and SketchFests across country and were nominated for the Comedy Network’s 2012 Canadian Comedy Award for Best Sketch Troupe!
